EXHIBIT 2
Total operating revenue of the Company for 1995 was $2,417,900.

The FY1995 results were approximately 15% above the FY1994 results. The main drivers for the increase were improved business conditions, increased product mix, and higher selling prices. The Company's financial results for the year reflected strong performance across all segments.

To the Shareholders of

Pall River Coal Works Company

April 15, 1994
By Order of the Board of Directors,

President:

By order from the treasurer of all the Company's shareholders,

The undersigned, do hereby authorize the execution of this

The Board of Directors of the Company to take the necessary steps to

The undersigned authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned do hereby authorize the execution of this

The undersigned agree to these actions and hereby authorize the execution of this